STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat—Odd Bits of Gossip.

Julia Arthur may return to the stage this season to play "Hamlet."

Mme. Melba will sing in London for the benefit of the Galveston sufferers before she sails for America.

Creston Clarke is touring the Bluegrass. He plays Hamlet in Danville next Monday night.

The Bernhardt-Coquelin Co. will sail from France on Nov. 10th for an American tour in "L'Anglon," "Cyrano de Bergerac," "Camille," "La Tosca" and "Tartuffe."

Olga Nethersole sailed Saturday for America and will give us "Sapho" and "Magda" again. Her tour begins at Wallack's, in New York, on the 23d, in "Sapho." Nat Goodwin and wife also sailed Saturday for America.

Richard Mansfield scored a signal triumph with his production of "Henry V." at the Garden Theatre, in New York, Wednesday night. From a spectacular and histrionic standpoint the play is said to be nothing short of marvelous. There are 355 people on the stage, a boy choir, a ballet of dancing girls, and an increased orchestra. There are in all eighteen elaborate stage settings.

Every lady is invited to attend Harry Simon's opening on 11, 12, 13—new dress goods, capes, jackets, furs, etc., etc.

SHORT NEWS STORIES.

Brief Paragraphs About Important Happenings.

The baseball season will close Saturday.

There is not a colored person in the town of Broadhead, Lincoln county, and no colored family lives closer than four miles.

James Hearn died in Owen county from blood poisoning caused by handling tobacco that had Paris green on it.

Charles Broadway Rouss, of New York, has withdrawn his offer of a million dollars to the person who could restore his sight. He is resigned to his misfortune and believes that God intended for him to remain blind.

Major Burton, an American cowboy, has recently dined with Queen Victoria, and slept at Windsor Castle. He was a scout in Africa with Lord Roberts.

Dr. S. W. Spears, the oldest Methodist minister in Kentucky, died Saturday at Nicholasville, where he went two weeks ago to attend Conference.

W. S. Taylor's deposition in the Yontsey case was taken at Indianapolis. He answered twenty questions.

PUBLIC SALE

PRETTY BOURBON COUNTY HOME AND FARM.

The Late Residence of Harrison B. Clay.

ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1900.

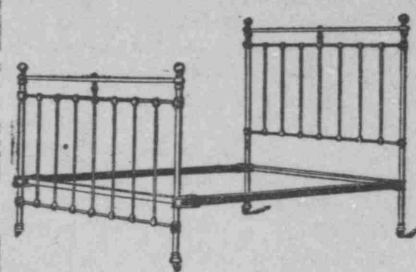

I will expose at public outcry, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., on the premises, of splendid Blue Grass land, all good tobacco land of fine quality. It lies on Green creek and Paris & Winchester turnpike, one of the best roads in Bourbon county, and is 5 miles from Paris, 12 miles from Winchester and 1 1/2 miles from Cunningham Station, on the L. & N. R. R., over which 6 passenger trains pass daily. Cunningham has a postoffice and Express office. The improvements consist of a nice modern residence of seven rooms, pantry, kitchen and cellar with large cistern at the door; ice-house, meat house, buggy house, poultry house, stables and cribs, all nearly new and in good repair. An abundance of fencing, in good condition, along the pike mostly stone wall. There is sufficient good timber to build a large tobacco barn, and one of the finest springs in Bourbon county supplying running water for any amount of stock during the most protracted drouths. It is seldom so desirable a farm is put upon the market. By calling on T. Helm Clay at Paris, Ky., or Jno. C. Clay, F. E. Nelson or the Gaitskill Bros., near the farm, prospective buyers will be shown the place.

150 ACRES

Possession of the improvements and about 15 acres will be given when first payment is made on day of sale. Balance in 2 equal payments in 6 and 12 months from day of sale, negotiable notes bearing six per cent. interest from day of sale. Possession of remainder of land given January 1st, 1901.

T. HELM CLAY.
